Ms. Nina K. Kovalska (Ukraine)

Original: English

She is Counsellor in the Ministry for Foreign Affairs of Ukraine, a post she has held since April 1991.

Within the sphere of her responsibilities in the Ministry are questions relating to the status of women in Ukraine and international cooperation in that regard.

Joining her country's Foreign Service in 1970 as Attachè, Mrs. Kovalska was appointed Third Secretary in the Ministry in April 1973 and subsequently, worked as Second Secretary from September 1973 until April 1983, as First Secretary - from 1983 until April 1991.

As a member of her country's delegation, Mrs. Kovalska has participated in sessions of the Commission on the Status of Women and of the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women and in the United Nations world conferences on women. She chaired the Commemorative Seminar on the Convention on Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women, held at Kiev in September 1990 and in March 1991 she was Chairperson of the 35th session of the Commission on the Status of Women.

As representative of the Government to the UN Commission on the Status of Women Mrs. Kovalska closely cooperates with the Supreme Soviet Women's Commission taking part in its hearings and drafting documents on women's issues.

Being a member of the Presidium of the Union of Women of Ukraine (NGO) Mrs. Kovalska maintains constant contacts with non-governmental women's organizations. She contributes much to raising women's self-awareness and enriching their knowledge of international conventions and local laws on Women's rights.

In her lectures, articles and brochures she dwells upon the status of women in Ukraine, the government's policies aimed at ensuring equality between the sexes, and the activities of the United Nation bodies in this field.

Born in Khmelnitsk, Ukraine, on 6 July 1937, Mrs. Kovalska received a diploma in Journalism from Kiev State University in 1960. She speaks fluent English and French.
